

Industry Partner Membership

Chapter involvement is key!

The most important step for your membership is to get involved with your chapter, the success of your Industry Partner membership depends on your involvement. Some of the chapter events include lunch and learns, expos, seminars, and design forums. Attending the chapter meetings and events is a great way to start networking with interior designers and other Industry Partners, and is a crucial step in making your membership successful. As an Industry Partner you also have the opportunity to sponsor and host local events.

Some helpful hints:

- Contact info for all Chapters can be found on the asid.org website in the Chapter locator.
- Chapter events are where networking begins. Check your chapter calendar for interesting events to attend and participate in. If the chapter events calendar is missing any activities that your company could assist in hosting, be sure to reach out and offer your assistance/ideas.
- Reach out to the Chapter Administrator to inquire about activities and events and ask about opportunities to showcase your products and services and begin to create some buzz!

Highlight your brand

ASID designers support the companies that invest in the organization and its mission, so one great benefit offered to Industry Partners is promotion of your brand as one who supports the Society. At the national level, here are some benefits that come with your membership that allow you to highlight your brand:

- IP Profile – an IP Profile this is an exclusive benefit offered only to members who are National, International or Corporate Industry Partner members. Featured on the www.asid.org website, it contains an expanded profile along with a link to your site and a hi-res image that's at least 6X6 and 300 dpi.
- ASID Advantage Profile – also available to National, International or Corporate Industry Partner members is a profile on the ASID Advantage page, a members-only access from the ~~national~~ www.asid.org website, provides a summary and easy access to information for designers to quickly reference any to-the-trade program you offer. This is a great way to augment your ~~email~~ marketing outreach to the design community about your special trade offerings.
- Find an Industry Partner – each of the 47 Chapter websites feature Find an Industry Partner, a search guide that allows you to locate ASID Industry Partners by name, location, chapter affiliation, and area of specialty. All ASID IP individual members (all representatives listed on a company's roster) receive a complimentary listing as a member benefit, with the option to upgrade if desired.
- Product Finder – the Product Finder is a sourcing guide associated with on the national www.asid.org website that members reference when looking for products. Members and nonmembers can be part of this guide for a fee, and a basic listing is provided free to you as a Industry Partner. Contact Multiview if an expanded listing is desired.
- Print and digital - Additional opportunities for both print and digital advertising at the national level are available at a discount by contacting Tom Davies tom.davies@stamats.com.

At the local chapter level, there are additional opportunities:

- Make sure your company is listed in the chapter directories. Each chapter has a directory, some print and some digital. Make sure that your company's contact information is current and correct.
- Be sure to also look into advertising in the chapter newsletter, hosting an event at your store or showroom, sponsoring events and using the chapter mailing list to help connect with area designers.

Flaunt your affiliation!

As an ASID National Industry Partner, you have access and the ability to use the ASID Industry Partner logo for marketing purposes. The ASID Industry Partner logo allows you to promote your membership, as well as signify your commitment to the design industry. This logo can be used on print pieces such as business cards, advertisements and flyers, and also on digital pieces including your company Web site or promotional emails.

To access the ASID Industry Partner logo, simply login to asid.org using your login and password and select "IP Logos." There is selection of color and black and white images in both .jpg and .eps formats to choose to download.

Please be aware the ASID Industry Partner logo is considered a "sub-brand" of the ASID brand identity system. As such, it is important that the logo be used according to the set guidelines and that it not be modified in any way. To view these guidelines please download the Style Guide for Using the ASID Industry Partner Logo, listed directly above the logos.

In addition, ASID Industry Partner members may use ASID in their appellations in the following format:

ABC Company, Industry Partner ASID or
ABC Company, Industry Partner of the American Society of Interior Designers

Utilize ASID online tools

As an ASID National Industry Partner member access to use and explore the www.asid.org site. A source of membership information, marketing tools, social media platforms and industry news, www.asid.org serves many purposes and can be a great tool including these features

- Member Home: Login online to update your membership contact information. You can also access the ASID IP logo to use for your marketing needs. Industry Partner main representatives can login to update company information including, adding and deleting representatives, changing your company products and description, and uploading the company logo for the logo rotator, as well as paying membership dues.
- Resource Center: Gain access to professional interior design news, research and information on topics such as, sustainable design, business and technology, aging and accessibility and the design profession.
- ASID I+D Online: In addition to the hard copy version each rep will receive, the Society's bi-monthly magazine, I+D, can also be found online in digital format. I+D presents editorial content on the leading industry issues, including sustainability, universal design, design specialties, business practices, and how to market and grow your business.
- Find an Industry Partner: At ASID we know how important it is to have the right partner on a project. The ASID Find an IP feature allows designers, members, and customers to quickly identify and locate ASID Industry Partners by name, location, chapter affiliation, and area of specialty. All ASID IP individual members (all representatives listed on a company's roster) receive a complimentary listing as a member benefit.
- Job Bank: Have a job opening? The ASID Job Bank can be a great source for posting and finding jobs within the industry. All National Industry Partners receive 2 free postings annually.
- LinkedIn: A professional media networking tool used to help Industry Partners make better use of their professional network of peers by connecting virtually to get news, participate in group discussions, and continue to build their industry peer circle. To create a profile on LinkedIn go to their webpage, LinkedIn.com. Once you have your profile, please visit the ASID Industry Partner group and request to Join ASID's Industry Partner group.