Section 6 – OTHER LIMITATIONS

1. No member or representative shall make use in any manner of the Society’s official emblem (logo) except as expressly stated in the Policies.

ARTICLE VII: CODE OF ETHICS AND DISCIPLINARY PROCEEDINGS

Section 1 – ETHICS

1. All Society members shall conduct their activities as interior designers in compliance with all provisions of the Society’s Code of Ethics as adopted or subsequently amended by the board.

Section 2 – SCOPE — NO IMMUNITY

1. Any member shall be subject to Society discipline if such member in any manner violates his/her obligations under these Bylaws or the Code of Ethics, or engages in any conduct detrimental to the welfare and interest of the Society, its chapters, or its members, or to the interests of the profession, or otherwise conducts himself/herself in an unprofessional manner as an interior designer.
2. A member shall not be immune from charges of misconduct or disciplinary proceedings because he/she engages in practice as an officer, director, stockholder, partner, or employee of any legal entity, or because he/she claims to have acted under the order of any officer, board, or committee of such legal entity, and every member shall be personally responsible for his/her own actions even if taken at the direction of such legal entity.
3. Disciplinary proceedings may be instituted only in accordance with the provisions of this Article, and no disciplinary proceeding or action shall be undertaken against any member by any chapter or other subdivisions of the Society.

ARTICLE VIII: DUES AND FEES

Section 1 – ANNUAL DETERMINATION

1. Dues and fees of the Society membership shall be determined by the board as part of the annual budgeting process, and shall remain in effect for no less than one calendar year.

Section 2 – PAYMENT OF DUES AND FEES

1. Dues and fees shall be payable when billed. Dues and fees of new members shall be remitted within 60 days after notification of admission, which will not be considered complete until such dues and fees are paid.
2. Members who have not paid dues within 90 days of invoicing each year (excluding members who have arranged for installment dues payment) may be subject to a late fee to be added to their dues balance.

3. The Society board's ability to levy a special assessment on the membership:
 - a. The national Board of Directors may levy an assessment on the membership for an amount in addition to their dues.
 - b. The board must state a goal for the assessment.
 - c. The board states which membership class and subclass this assessment is levied on.
 - d. The board must define a time period of the assessment. All assessments must run concurrently with the Society's dues cycle and can be for no more than two years. The board may renew the assessment for an additional two years by board vote.
 - e. The total amount of revenue received from any assessment cannot exceed 5 percent of the aggregate dues total in any fiscal year, without a vote from the membership class or subclass that would be responsible for paying the assessment.

Section 3 – DUES AND FEES ALLOCATED TO CHAPTERS

1. A proportion of dues received by the Society shall be remitted to its chapters as determined by the board as part of the annual budgeting process.

B. SOCIETY ORGANIZATION

ARTICLE I: BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Section 1 – MANAGEMENT POWERS

1. The right and authority to manage all activities, property, and funds of the Society shall rest with the board, which shall have the powers and authority conferred by the Bylaws, by its corporate charter, and by law.

Section 2 – COMPOSITION

1. The board shall consist of seven at-large national directors, the Society's directors and an Industry Partner representative.

Section 3 – QUALIFICATION

1. Except as is otherwise provided in this section, candidates for at-large national director shall have successfully completed the National Council for Interior Design Qualification (NCIDQ) examination or other examination specified in the national Bylaws, and shall have either served: (i) as a chapter president; or (ii) on a Society committee, council or task force; or (iii) have documented and/or demonstrated leadership within the profession. One at-large position on the board will be filled by an Allied member who must meet the above criteria with the exception of successfully completing the NCIDQ examination or other examination specified in the national Bylaws.

Section 4 – FINANCIAL OVERSIGHT

1. An at-large member of the board shall be selected by the board to provide oversight of all Society financial and administrative matters, working with the Society's director of finance and administration.

Section 5 – BOARD SECRETARY

1. The executive assistant to the president and CEO shall serve as the board secretary in recording the determinations of the board at all of its meetings.

Section 6 – TERM OF OFFICE

1. The Society's directors shall serve on the board for a term concurrent with their respective terms in office.

2. Directors at-large and the Industry Partner representative to the national board shall serve for a two-year term commencing on Oct. 1, the beginning of the Society's fiscal year, and shall not be eligible for re-election until three full years shall have elapsed following completion of their term (amended 7/99). Service as a director at-large or Industry Partner representative to the national board for a consecutive period of one year or more shall be deemed to be an equivalent of a two-year term.

Section 7 – MEETINGS

1. Regular Meetings – Such meetings of the board shall be held at such times and places as the board determines.
2. Special Meetings – A special meeting of the board may be called by the chair at any time, at his/her discretion, but it shall be the duty of the chair to call such meeting upon the written request of five members of the board who shall specify therein the purpose of such special meeting. The notice of any such special meeting shall state the purpose or purposes thereof and at whose instance the meeting was called. No business other than that stated in the notice shall be transacted at such special meeting.
3. Quorum: Board Action – Personal attendance of the majority of total board membership shall constitute a quorum, and board action shall require the affirmative vote of two-thirds of the board members present (amended 10/11). Each national board member shall be entitled to cast one vote. No board member shall be entitled to vote by proxy or by designee. Board meetings shall be conducted either in person or through telecommunication or other forms of communication by which all persons participating in the meeting can hear one another.

Board actions to:

- a. Amend the Bylaws
- b. Approve the Society's strategic plan, workplan or annual budget must be conducted either in person or through some form of communication in which each participant is able to both view and hear all other participants (amended 10/98).

Section 8 – REMOVAL

1. Any director, director at-large, or other board member may be removed from office by board action provided he/she is given the opportunity by the board to show cause why such action should not be taken.

Section 9 – VACANCIES

1. A vacancy in the office of director at-large shall be filled by board action pursuant to the Policies.

ARTICLE II: DIRECTORS

Section 1 – ENUMERATION

1. The Society's board shall be led by a board chair, a chair-elect, and a past chair, each serving for a one-year term commencing on Oct. 1, the beginning of the Society's fiscal year.

Section 2 – ELIGIBILITY

1. No member shall be eligible for election to serve as a national director unless such member:
 - a. has successfully completed the NCIDQ examination or other examination specified in the national bylaws, and
 - b. has served as an at-large director on the national board.

Section 3 – THE CHAIR

1. The chair shall preside at Society and board meetings; shall be an ex-officio member of all committees and task forces, except the Governance Committee; shall perform such other duties as may be required by the board; and is required to carry out the strategic plan.

Section 4 – CHAIR-ELECT

1. The chair-elect shall perform the duties assigned to him/her by the chair and/or board and shall preside at meetings of the Society's membership and the board in the absence of the chair. He/she shall automatically succeed the incumbent chair at the conclusion of the latter's term of office.
2. Eligibility shall be confined to members who meet requirements of Section 2 of this Article.
3. When the board sits as the Society's Strategic Planning Committee, the chair-elect shall serve as its chair.
4. The chair-elect shall be responsible for making appointments for the following year of service.

Section 5 – IMMEDIATE PAST CHAIR

1. The immediate past chair shall perform such duties as may be requested by the chair or the by the board and as identified in the Policies. The immediate past chair shall not be eligible to serve in any national office, including director at-large, again following expiration of his/her term of office.

Section 6 – ELECTION PROCEDURE

1. Nominations – The Governance Committee shall nominate all candidates for office in accordance with the Policies.
2. Additional Nominations – Additional candidates for each national director and director at-large position may be nominated through written petition in accordance with the Policies.
3. Ballot procedure – Balloting will be conducted in accordance with the Policies.

Section 7 – VACANCIES

1. Vacancies in any office of the Society, including members of the board, shall be filled according to Policies.

ARTICLE III: MEETINGS OF THE SOCIETY

Section 1 – ANNUAL MEETING

1. There shall be an annual meeting of the Society's members, at time and place specified by the board, for receiving annual reports and the transaction of such other business as may properly come before the meeting. Meeting notice shall be sent to each member not less than thirty (30) days before date of meeting.

Section 2 – SPECIAL MEETINGS

1. Special meetings of members may be called by the chair and by the chair-elect or shall be called by the chair upon written request either of a majority of members of the board or in response to a request signed by 10 percent of the Professional members, addressed to the chair. Notice of any special meeting shall be mailed to each Professional member at his/her last recorded address at least 20 days in advance, with a statement of time and place and information as to the subjects to be considered, and a statement at whose instance such special meeting is to be called. No business other than that stated in the notice of the special meeting shall be considered during any such meeting.

Section 3 – QUORUM — CONDUCT OF BUSINESS

1. Not less than 10 percent of the Professional members present in person and/or by proxy shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at any duly called special meeting of members.

ARTICLE IV: SOCIETY STAFF ORGANIZATION

Section 1 – PRESIDENT/CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

1. The Society's national offices shall be under the direction of the Society's chief of staff, the president/ chief executive officer, who shall be selected by the board.
2. The president/chief executive officer shall be responsible for management of all operations of the Society's national office, including staff performance, hiring, dismissal, and replacement of staff personnel and allocation of staff remuneration within the annual budget approved by the board. The president/chief executive officer shall be responsible for the implementation of the annual strategic plan and shall perform such other duties as may be assigned by the chair or the board.
3. Tenure and remuneration of the president/chief executive officer, inclusive of employment benefits, shall be determined by the national directors.
4. The president/chief executive officer shall report to the chair and the board.

Section 2 – STAFF: PERSONNEL MANUAL

1. All staff shall perform the functions described for their respective positions in the Society’s Personnel Manual.
2. All staff shall be responsible to the president/chief executive officer and shall report to him/her or to his/her designee. The president/chief executive officer is responsible for the structure, staffing, and management of ASID personnel.
3. The Society’s Personnel Manual shall describe functions and responsibilities of all staff personnel and shall be reviewed and revised by the board whenever changes are warranted.

ARTICLE V: AMENDMENTS TO THE BYLAWS

Section 1 – AMENDMENTS BY MEMBERS

1. These Bylaws may be amended at the annual or any special Society meeting by a majority vote of a quorum present at the meeting, provided that notice of the proposed amendment shall have been sent together with notice of the meeting.
2. No amendment shall be considered at the meeting unless the same has been submitted for consideration either upon recommendation of the board or by written petition executed by not less than 200 Professional members. Any proposed amendment shall be filed with the board secretary by either the board or the petitioning members, as the case may be, not less than 45 days before the date of the meeting.

Section 2 – AMENDMENTS BY THE BOARD

1. These Bylaws may be amended first, by presentation of amendment at a scheduled board meeting for board's consideration, and secondly, by a vote on the amendment(s) to take place at the next scheduled board meeting, provided that the board secretary shall have sent to each board member notice of proposed amendments accompanied by pros and cons not less than 10 days prior to said meetings.
2. Any amendment that will either increase or decrease the number of board members shall require affirmative vote of either two-thirds of the board members present at the meeting at which it is considered or of a majority of the entire membership of the board, whichever is higher.
3. No amendment shall be considered at a board meeting unless the proposed amendment has either been submitted by a director or not less than two directors at large.
4. Any proposed amendment shall be filed with the board no later than 15 days prior to the date of the board meeting.

Section 3 – POLICY AMENDMENTS BY THE BOARD

1. The Policies may be amended by one vote on the amendment to take place at a scheduled board meeting, provided each board member receives notice of proposed amendment accompanied by pros and cons not less than 10 days prior to said meeting.
2. No amendment shall be considered at a board meeting unless the proposed amendment has either been submitted by a director or no fewer than two directors at large.
3. Any proposed amendment shall be filed with the board no later than 15 days prior to the date of the board meeting.

Section 4 – APPROVAL BY COUNSEL

1. Prior to board approval, any amendment to these Bylaws or Policies shall first be reviewed by the Society's general counsel as to form and content being within the powers of the Society to enact.

Section 5 – INTERPRETATION OF BYLAWS

1. Each provision of these Bylaws and all amendments shall be interpreted and construed in accordance with the laws of the state of Delaware.

C. SOCIETY FINANCIAL

ARTICLE I: FISCAL AND FINANCIAL AFFAIRS

Section 1 – THE SOCIETY’S FISCAL YEAR

1. Shall be Oct. 1 through Sept. 30 in each year.

Section 2 – SOCIETY FUNDS

1. Procedures for handling of the Society’s funds and its various bank and investment funds shall be determined by the Policies.

Section 3 – EXPENDITURES AND LIABILITIES — LIMITATION

1. No member, director, officer, committee, employee, or other representative of the Society shall have the authority to expend any Society funds, incur any Society liability, or make any commitment on behalf of the Society for any expenses or involve it in any financial liability, unless such expenditure, liability, or commitment has been authorized in the Society’s annual budget or by specific resolution of the board.

Section 4 – LIMITATION ON LIABILITIES

1. Society members shall not be considered as partners for any purpose. No member, officer, board member, or employee of the Society shall be liable for the acts or failure to act on the part of any other member, officer, board member, or employee of the Society; nor shall any member, officer, or board member be personally liable to a third party for any action taken or not taken on behalf of the Society under authority granted in these Bylaws.

Section 5 – BONDING

1. The board shall arrange to obtain such Fidelity Bond as it determines for all Society officers, board members, and staff personnel.

D. CHAPTERS OF THE SOCIETY

ARTICLE I: CHAPTER ORGANIZATION

Section 1 – SCOPE

1. On state and local matters, the Society shall function through its chapters, which shall be legally constituted as nonprofit membership associations of the state or states in which they regularly conduct operations.

Section 2 – ESTABLISHMENT

1. Chapters shall be established by the board, which shall determine all requirements for chapter formation. The creation of a new chapter shall be approved only by the board based on a recommendation of a board-appointed committee. Each chapter shall operate as an integral segment of the Society, and no chapter shall incorporate as a separate legal entity apart from the Society.

Section 3 – AUTHORITY AND DUTIES

1. No act or activity undertaken by a chapter shall be at variance with these Bylaws or with Society policy, guideline, or action.

Section 4 – BYLAWS

1. Each chapter shall adopt Bylaws incorporating all provisions as are set forth in the Appendix to these Bylaws, subject to modifications or additions requested by a chapter and approved by the board.

Section 5 – NAME

1. Each chapter shall adopt a name that shall begin with the name of the geographic area over which the chapter has jurisdiction and be closed with the phrase “of the American Society of Interior Designers” without use of any corporate designation. The name shall be subject to board approval.

Section 6 – CHAPTER MEMBERSHIP

1. Each Society member or Industry Partner representative shall be a member of the chapter where the member maintains his/her preferred mailing address, unless he/she notifies national headquarters to change his/her chapter affiliation.

Section 7 – CHAPTER PRESIDENT — LIMITATION

1. No national Society director may serve concurrently as a chapter officer.

Section 8 – PROPERTY INTERESTS

1. No chapter shall have any interest in any assets of the Society, nor be liable for any debt or contractual obligation of the Society. The Society shall not have any interest in assets of any chapter, nor be liable for any debt or contractual obligation of any chapter, except that upon board revocation of the chapter's authority to operate, all the funds, property, and records of the chapter shall revert to and become the sole property of the Society, subject to proper claims of third parties.

Section 9 – ACTIVITIES OF CHAPTERS — LIMITATIONS

1. A chapter must obtain Society approval before engaging in any fundraising activity and/or before engaging in any new or unusual activity.
2. A chapter shall fully comply with any instructions received by it from a board-appointed committee pertaining to chapter programming or other activities, or chapter administration, provided that such instructions have theretofore been approved by the Society's board.

Section 10 – FINANCIAL REPORTS

1. Each chapter shall submit to the Society's director of finance a quarterly and annual financial report in such form as the board requires, verified by the chapter's president.

Section 11 – TERMINATION OF CHAPTER OPERATIONS

1. The authority of a chapter to operate may be revoked by the board upon the recommendation of a board-appointed committee for such reason, provided that the chapter is given the opportunity by the board to show cause why such action should not be taken. Upon written notification of revocation, the chapter shall immediately surrender all chapter records, funds, and properties to the Society, and shall immediately discontinue operations as a chapter.

ARTICLE II: STUDENT CHAPTERS

Section 1 – ESTABLISHMENT

1. The Society may establish student chapters at educational institutions offering undergraduate or graduate programs in interior design that meet ASID requirements. Only one student chapter shall be established at each educational institution or branch of the same. At any time and for any reason, the board may withdraw the right granted to operate a student chapter at any such educational institution.

Section 2 – ORGANIZATION

1. A student chapter shall operate in accordance with these Bylaws and such policies as the board may adopt with respect to student chapters.

Section 3 – NON-ENDORSEMENT

1. Establishment of a student chapter at an educational institution shall in no way imply that the Society has approved or accredited the interior design program offered at the institution. The institution shall not in any manner, inclusive of the material published in its brochures or other literature, state or imply that the Society has, in any way, endorsed, accredited, or otherwise approved its interior design program.

ARTICLE III: CHAPTER MANAGEMENT

Section 1 – CHAPTER MANAGEMENT

1. All chapters of the Society are required to operate within the Society's purpose and activities.
2. All board members are required to attend all training sessions in accordance with the Policies.

APPENDIX: CHAPTER BYLAWS

ARTICLE I: NAME

Section 1 – NAME

1. The name of this nonprofit professional organization shall be the _____ Chapter of the American Society of Interior Designers.
