NATIONAL SOCIETY

A. SOCIETY MEMBERSHIP

ARTICLE I: MEMBERSHIP ADMINISTRATIVE POLICIES

Section 1 – Qualifications for Membership

1. Professional Membership — Interior Designer

Completion of 40 semester/60 quarter hours of interior design education from an institution accredited by the appropriate regional or national institutional accrediting body AND successful completion of the National Council for Interior Design Qualification (NCIDQ) Examination or equivalent examination approved by the ASID Board of Directors OR legal registration in interior design by any state or similar governmental authority that adopted a general interior design qualification law prior to Aug. 17, 1993, provided that such registration remains legally effective (meaning the individual takes the necessary steps to maintain their registration, membership would not be forfeited in instances in which a member loses registration due solely to action taken by the state eliminating registration in the state) and provided further that application therefore was filed in accordance with guidelines by no later than March 31, 1994.

2. Professional Membership — Architect

Completion of 40 semester/60 quarter hours of architecture education from an institution accredited by the appropriate regional or national institutional accrediting body AND successful completion on the Architect Registration Exam (ARE) administered by National Council of Architectural Registration Boards (NCARB) or equivalent examination.

3. Professional Membership — Educator

Active engagement either as head of, or full-time instructor in, a post-secondary program of interior design education being presented at any university, college, or accredited school of interior design, provided that such program requires completion of a minimum of a two-year program in interior design and related courses AND

- a. Completion of 40 semester/60 quarter hours of interior design education from an institution accredited by the appropriate regional or national institutional accrediting body
- b. Successful completion of the NCIDQ Examination or equivalent examination approved by the ASID Board of Directors.

4. Allied Membership — Interior Designer

Completion of 40 semester/60 quarter hours of interior design education from an institution accredited by the appropriate regional or national institutional accrediting body OR such other qualifications as may be adopted by the Board as set forth in ASID Policies.

5. Allied Membership — Educator

Active engagement either as head of, or full-time instructor in, a post-secondary program of interior design education being presented at any university, college, or accredited school of interior design, provided that such program requires completion of a minimum of a two-year program in interior design and related courses AND completion of 40 semester/60 quarter hours of interior design education from an institution accredited by the appropriate regional or national institutional accrediting body.

6. Associate Membership

Completion of a minimum of a college-level associate's degree in any major demonstrated by official transcript from an institution accredited by the appropriate regional or national institutional accrediting body AND six years of documented full-time interior design practice as in accordance with the requirements set forth in ASID Guidelines.

7. Student Membership

- a. Actively enrolled as a student in a post-secondary program of interior design education being presented at any university, college, or accredited school of interior design, provided that such program requires completion of a minimum of a two-year program in interior design and related courses AND completion of 40 semester/60 quarter hours of interior design education from an institution accredited by the appropriate regional or national institutional accrediting body.
- b. Enrolled students may maintain student membership for a maximum of six years. After six years have passed, the membership will not be renewed but the student may appeal the decision in writing by providing proof of current enrollment in a program eligible for student membership.

8. Industry Partner

The Industry Partner category is composed of businesses engaged in supplying equipment, products or services to the profession. Such businesses may become Industry Partners upon meeting the following requirements:

- a. An Industry Partner may have a retail component to their business but must demonstrate the existence of a specific “to the trade” program in the way of a dedicated sales representative, discount program, and the like.
- b. All aspects of an Industry Partner’s business must be in accordance with the Society’s purpose and strategic guideposts.
- c. Staff/employees of any Industry Partner may use the ASID Industry Partner mark and/or appellation only if they are currently listed as a representative on the company’s ASID Industry Partner membership roster.

9. Educator Partner

Active engagement either as a full-time or adjunct instructor in a post-secondary program of interior design education or as a head of a post-secondary program of interior design being presented at any university, college, or accredited school of interior design, provided that such program requires completion of a minimum of a two-year program in interior design and related courses.

Section 2 – Rights and Responsibilities

1. The Society’s Board of Directors will set a continuing education unit (CEU) requirement biannually.
2. Professional, Allied and Associate retired members; Professional, Allied and Associate inactive members, Professional life members; and Industry Partner representatives shall not be required to comply with this requirement.
3. Use of the ASID member mark is limited to Professional members in good standing and may be used only in accordance with board-approved guidelines.
4. Upon approval or renewal of membership, members will confirm that they have read, support, and will adhere to the Code of Ethics.
5. Any Professional member granted either inactive status or retired status shall be entitled to exercise all rights and privileges of a Professional member. Professional members shall be entitled to use the Society’s appellation (ASID or FASID, as the case may be) as a suffix to such Professional member’s name.
6. Industry Partner participants may identify themselves to the public and may use the Industry Partner emblem for all business purposes inclusive of product advertising and promotion.
7. Society and chapter board members shall not make reference to such elected office in connection with any advertising or other promotion of their professional services or in endorsement of any product or services.

Section 3 – Dues Exemptions

1. The catastrophic illness dues exemption can be requested only if:
 - a. The member is suffering an illness, or
 - b. Someone in the member's immediate family is suffering an illness that requires that the member temporarily give up his/her design practice. Immediate family is defined as a spouse, life partner, parent, son or daughter.
2. Consideration of member dues exemption in the event of more widespread "emergencies" will be administered in accordance with the Society's Emergency Response Policy.

Section 4 – Membership Reinstatement

1. All resignation notices must be in writing and sent directly to the headquarters support team (HST).
2. Former members are put in a terminated status for five years, during which time they may reinstate their membership.
3. Individuals who do not pay their membership dues are considered lapsed and will be held in a suspended status for one year (which is determined by the first day of the current membership renewal order). Once the individual moves to a suspended status he or she is no longer considered a member of ASID and, as such, loses all access to rights, benefits and privileges.
 - a. To become active, the suspended individual must pay his or her current balance, including any fees assessed.
 - b. After the year of suspension has passed, the individual moves to a terminated status.

Section 5 – Disciplinary Proceedings

1. Any complaint alleging misconduct by a member will be reviewed by the Ethics Committee.
2. If the Ethics Committee determines that the complaint does warrant a disciplinary hearing, procedures outlined in the Disciplinary Procedures document will be followed.
3. Notice of a disciplinary hearing shall be given to the participants no later than 30 days after the Ethics Committee concludes a disciplinary proceeding is warranted.
4. If a participant elects to personally appear at the hearing, the concerned participant will, at his or her own expense, appear in person at the hearing.
5. If participants do not elect to attend the hearing in person, parties will participate in the proceeding through video conferencing or telephone conference call, provided such technology is available and all costs as reasonably determined by the Society are paid in advance by the participants.

ARTICLE II: EXTERNAL RELATIONSHIPS/ACTIVITIES

Section 1 – External Relationships

1. The Interior Design Continuing Education Council (IDCEC) — ASID recognizes the reciprocity of CEUs among the member organizations.
2. National Council for Interior Design Qualification (NCIDQ) — ASID recognizes the NCIDQ exam as the professional qualification exam.
3. ASID may form relationships with other organizations that further the profession of design and align with the strategic plan.
4. ASID may sign or join other membership organizations that further the profession of design and align with the strategic plan.
5. Only HST or board-appointed representatives may represent ASID members or ASID chapters in dealing with matters addressed by interior design coalitions.

ARTICLE III: REGISTRATION, LICENSING AND LEGISLATIVE ACTION

Section 1 – Registration, Licensing and Legislative Action

1. ASID supports the pursuit of legal recognition of the profession of interior design in ways that:
 - a. Do not limit, restrict or prevent the practice of interior design
 - b. Do not limit, restrict or prevent anyone from using the title “interior design” or “interior designer”
 - c. Allow state-qualified interior designers to (a) use the title “registered,” “certified” or “licensed” interior designer and (b) perform such additional services related to the practice of interior design as applicable governing jurisdictions deem appropriate for state-qualified interior designers to perform.
2. ASID supports/recognizes the Council for Interior Design Qualifications (CIDQ) as the body whose professional exam tests minimum competency for state-qualified interior designers.
3. ASID recognizes NCARB as the body whose professional exam tests minimum competency for state qualified architects.

Section 2 – Advocacy and Policy

1. The ASID Board of Directors may adopt position statements affecting the interior built environment, business issues affecting interior designers, and/or the health, safety and welfare of the public.
2. The ASID Board of Directors may adopt position statements on the international, national, and/or local levels.

B. SOCIETY ORGANIZATION

ARTICLE I: INTERNAL MANAGEMENT PROCEDURES

Section 1 – Administration Policies Applicable to the Society

ARTICLE III: NOMINATIONS AND ELECTION GUIDELINES

Section 1 – Chapter

1. Chapter Nominating Committee:

- a. The Chapter Nominating Committee each year shall be selected by the seated board and consist of:

- (i) Two members who have served on the chapter board within the past 10 years
- (ii) Two at-large chapter members
- (iii) The immediate past president, who serves as a non-voting chair (amended October 2009)

3. All nominating materials and returned results (including both electronic and paper ballots) must be retained by the chapter for a period of two years after the election (amended October 2009).

4. Ballot results must be opened and/or tabulated by a neutral third party. As an option, a chapter may use a certified outside service (such as a certified public accountant) to receive and count ballots, and to provide an affidavit of results (amended October 2009).

5. By no later than January 15 of each year, the official chapter election ballots must be available to all eligible voters in the chapter (amended October 2009).

6. Chapter candidates/officers:

- a. Past Society officers and directors are not eligible for any chapter elected office, exempting Nominating Committee positions or any appointed positions.
- b. A Society officer or director, other than the past president, who has not served as a chapter president shall be eligible to serve on a chapter board or as a chapter officer. This will permit the member to become eligible to be a Society president elect candidate in the future.
- c. It is recommended that Allied practitioner members on the board be in the NCIDQ process.
- d. The student member on the chapter board (SRB) is responsible for representing all student chapters and independent student members within the chapter. One nominee shall be submitted from each student chapter to the chapter board.
- e. Officer candidates must have served on the chapter board within the past 10 years and/or have served as a committee chair for two of the past 10 years (amended April 2007).
- f. Directors may not serve more than two full, two-year terms consecutively. However, after serving two full, two-year terms, a director is still eligible to serve as president-elect.
- g. All chapter finance and personnel committees must be composed solely of chapter board members.

7. Vacancies in the position of:
 - h. Chapter president shall be filled by the president elect, provided that the president-elect has completed all presidential training as stipulated by the Chapter Support Team (CST). In the absence of such an individual, the vacancy shall be filled by a qualified professional member who has served in the position of president no fewer than two years and no more than five years prior and who is approved by the chapter board.
 - i. Chapter president-elect shall be filled by a qualified Professional member approved by the chapter board. All vacancies in chapter officer or chapter board positions must be filled within 45 days unless approval is obtained by the CST.
 - j. All vacancies in chapter officer or chapter board positions must be filled within 45 days, unless approval is obtained by the CST.
 - k. Except as provided for in subparagraph 12(a) and 12(b), any other vacancy in the chapter board shall be filled by the candidate who was the next highest vote getter in the pool of candidates for this position in the last chapter election. In the event that no such candidate is available, the vacancy shall be filled by a qualified member approved by the chapter board.
 - l. Chapter Nominating Committee shall be filled by a qualified member appointed and approved by the chapter board.
 - m. Chapter Nominating Committee chair shall be filled by a Professional member appointed and approved by the chapter board.
8. Other election policies can be found in the Chapter Election Kit.

Section 2 – Nominations

1. The Nominating Committee shall meet and nominate, by majority vote, candidates for each pending vacancy:
 - a. The Nominating Committee has the option to select a pool of candidates greater in number than the number of positions to be filled.
 - b. Alternatively, the committee may opt to use a single-slate selection process to elect its board.
2. No member shall be a candidate for more than one position on either the national or chapter levels, including Nominating Committee, at any one time. No member of the Nominating Committee shall be nominated for office, notwithstanding resignation from the Nominating Committee.
3. The Nominating Committee must cause its list of nominees to be posted with the chapter secretary (or person designated by the board for this purpose) as a matter of public record and must forward a copy of the list, as it will appear on the chapter ballot, to national headquarters in the manner specified in the Policies.
4. Additional candidates for any position may be nominated through written petition signed by not less than 10 percent of the total of Professional, Allied Practitioner, and Industry Partner members of the chapter in good standing, provided such petition is received by the chapter secretary (or person designated by the board for this purpose) no later than thirty days after the names of the candidates submitted by the Nominating Committee have been filed with the secretary, and provided that such persons are eligible to hold the office for which they are being nominated.

Section 3 – Balloting

1. By the date specified in the Chapter Election Kit, the official chapter ballot, including names of eligible candidates nominated by the Nominating Committee and by petition for each office, board position, must be mailed along with an official return envelope to all Professional, Allied Practitioner, and Industry Partner members in good standing.
2. Chapter members shall complete and return ballots to a neutral third party designated by the board within 10 days after mailing. The ballots shall remain unopened until counted by the third party. Election as a chapter officer shall be deemed complete only if the named candidate is approved by at least 51 percent of the ballots cast. The Nominating Committee shall select a new candidate for such open chapter office and resubmit the ballot for membership approval as often as may be required until such 51 percent membership approval is obtained (amended October 2005).
3. Each position to be filled on the chapter board shall be filled by the candidate(s) in each respective category who receive(s) the most votes, filling the first vacancy with the highest vote-getter, the second with the second highest, and so forth. In the event of a tie for a final open position, the candidate to be elected shall be determined by a simple game of chance, conducted in the presence of the chairman of the Nominating Committee, or other member of the Nominating Committee designated by the chairman, and the concerned candidates.

C. CHAPTER FINANCIAL

ARTICLE I: CHAPTER RELATED FINANCIAL ISSUES

Section 1 – General Policies

1. Institutions providing accounts and other services to chapters that bear the chapter's federal identification number shall be directed to send all statements and other official correspondence to the chapter board member with financial oversight or staff as may be determined only by the chapters' Board of Directors.
2. HST shall have the right at any time upon notice to the concerned chapter's president to review a chapter's books of account and such other financial documentation as ASID may request (amended April 2010).
3. All chapter bank or other financial institution accounts will:
 - a. Be in the name of the chapter.
 - b. Use the chapter's Tax Identification number.
 - c. Send all statements to the director with financial oversight or designated staff member.
 - d. Hold all chapter funds.
4. Each chapter shall be responsible for preparing and filing, in its own district, the required Federal Tax Form 990 (and 990T if applicable) prepared by a professional tax preparer, preferably by a Certified Public Accountant (CPA) (amended April 2010).
5. Each chapter is required to carry public liability insurance coverage. Such coverage will be provided by a central policy arranged for by the Society's headquarters staff. The cost of the central policy will be allocated to the chapters on the basis of membership as of January 1 of each year and will be deducted from each chapter's dues allocation(s).
6. Each chapter is required to carry officer and directors insurance coverage. Such coverage will be provided by a central policy arranged for by the Society's headquarters staff. The cost of the central policy will be deducted from each chapter's dues allocation(s).
7. Two signatures shall be required on all checks drawn on a chapter account. It is required that one of the two signatures be that of the chapter financial director and the other be that of a chapter officer. The approved check-signers must be updated with the bank or other financial institution annually.
8. If the chapter uses a form of electronic funds transfer, such as a credit card, debit card or Internet wire system, proper controls must be in place, documented by the chapter and approved by HST.
9. Chapters are required to use accounting software approved by HST for all accounting, reporting and budgeting, using the template chart of accounts provided by the Society's headquarters.
10. Chapters may not set up local "membership programs" that are separate from the existing ASID Industry Partner membership as established in ASID Bylaws and Policies.
11. Chapters are not permitted to waive, reduce or pay for any dues for any member of the chapter's Board of Directors without prior consent from HST.
12. The Society and the chapter will engage in non-dues revenue programs. When a centralized program exists and a revenue sharing model is in place, the chapter is not permitted to engage in a similar program without the permission of HST.

13. Chapters are encouraged to share revenue-generating programs among one another for the benefit of the Society as a whole.
14. All chapters of the Society must be in compliance with the Society's mandated brand standards. The Society will provide annual training to chapter leadership on the brand standards. The chapter allocation for chapters repeatedly in noncompliance may be withheld until a review of the chapter's brand is completed by HST and the findings are shared with the chapter's board of directors.
15. The Society may mandate a designated company or companies for the printing of all branded materials as designated by HST and reviewed by the board of directors. The chapter allocation for chapters repeatedly in noncompliance may be withheld and a portion used to pay any costs incurred by the Society.

Section 2 – Reporting to the Society

1. Chapters shall provide the HST with an unaudited financial statement at the end of each quarter to be prepared in accordance with the format and instructions issued by the HST. In addition, a final year end financial report is to be provided that summarizes the entire fiscal year in accordance with the format and instructions issued by the HST.
2. Chapters shall submit copies of their upcoming strategic plans, work plans, and budgets by August 31 of each year to HST and their board-appointed advisor. Fourth quarter and first quarter dues allocations shall be retained at the Society's headquarters until these documents are received by the HST from the chapter.
3. Any chapter that employs an administrator must conduct an annual review of the administrator and certify to HST that the review has been completed (amended April 2010).
4. Any chapter that contracts for administrative services must conduct an annual review of the contract and certify to HST that the review has been completed. The contract must be reviewed by HST and legal counsel annually (amended April 2010).
5. As part of the quarterly reports, chapters must certify that the funds allocated to the chapter from the direct legislative check-off and the legislative assessments were used properly.
6. Chapters must report an election slate to the Society's chapter services department annually.
7. Chapters must report the results of their elections to the Society's Education and Engagement Team and the Chapter Support Team annually.
8. Chapters must have the name of their legal counsel and tax preparer on file with the Society's Finance and Administration department.
9. All chapter projects or programs that involve use of the Society's or chapter's name, logo or endorsement with respect to the marketing of any product or service must be submitted in advance for review and approval by (i) the Society's president/CEO or the HST or by (ii) a Society officer (amended April 2010).

Section 3 – Dues Advancements and Loans

1. A request for a chapter dues advance must be made in writing by the chapter board of directors to the HST, which shall submit the written request to the chair of a board-appointed committee. The committee chair shall present the request to the committee for consideration and recommendation regarding approval. Decisions on dues advances shall be made by the committee, the Society's director at large with financial oversight, and HST. For the purposes of the foregoing, an advance is defined as money advanced on a short-term basis, the amount of which can and will be deducted from the next dues allocation due the concerned chapter.
2. Any chapter requesting a loan from the Society shall comply with the following procedures:
 - a. All applications for chapter loans must be made, in writing, by the chapter board to HST, and applications must include the reasons for the request and a proposed repayment schedule.
 - b. HST shall submit the written request to the committee. The committee chair shall present the request to the committee for consideration and recommendation regarding approval.
 - c. The loan application shall be reviewed by the committee in conjunction with a review of the requesting chapter's operations, strategic plan, work plan and budget.
 - d. The committee shall make its recommendations regarding approval or disapproval of a chapter's loan request to the Society's board of directors. The board's decision shall be final.
 - e. Chapters will be required to pay interest on any loan, at such rate as the board may determine, not to exceed the prime rate in effect as of the date of the loan.
3. The Society's director at large with financial oversight shall be consulted concerning fund availability for any request for an advance or loan.

Section 4 – Chapters and the ASID Foundation

1. Chapters are prohibited from forming subsidiary organizations, including 501(C)(3) entities. If prior to the effective date of April 20, 2006, the current chapter board must serve as the foundation's board of directors. The foundation's board must annually provide a copy of the foundation's tax return to HST and, the board must have permanently on file with the HST a copy of its bylaws and incorporation papers.

Section 5 – Chapter Events and Fundraising Activities

1. For all chapter events and fundraising activities, the chapter shall submit to HST (i) a description of the product or service, (ii) the names of the individuals/organizations who will provide the product/service, (iii) the names of any individuals/organizations who will benefit from the product/service, (iv) an explanation of how the fundraising activity fits into the chapter's strategic plan, (v) an overview of the objective of the fundraising activities in relation to the purpose of the Society, (vi) a copy of the chapter's annual budget clearly reflecting all budgeted revenues and expenses for the event or activity, and (vii) any other relevant information.
2. The Society's legal counsel's review is limited to determine whether chapter contracts or events would violate any Society policy or would adversely affect the Society's tax exempt status. Business and legal issues are left to the wisdom of chapters and their local legal counsel. The Society's legal counsel and HST may provide advice and guidance on business matters and may mandate terms in the best interest of the chapters (amended April 2010).

D. STUDENT CHAPTERS

The educational institution must be accredited by the appropriate regional or national institutional accrediting body. A program in interior design at any such educational institution shall be either accredited by the Council for Interior Design Accreditation or encouraged to pursue accreditation by the Council for Interior Design Accreditation.
