About the Artist

Dan Deuter was born on a 5,000 acre ranch in South Dakota. He's ridden on horseback from Canada to Colorado and has served as the director of the Fort Uncompahgre Living History Museum in addition to managing the Scenic Mesa buffalo ranch in Hotchkiss, CO. Dan's experiences help set his paintings apart from all others. Canvas provides the bones and oil paint is the blood with which he paints his experiences. Every painting is an expression of the history he loves and has experienced. It is his legacy, past and future.
